Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

In today's Gospel we hear Jesus proclaiming that he is "the bread of life." He then offers an invitation to come to him. For us, the invitation is to live the Eucharistic life in Christ. What does it mean for our parish family to live together in the Eucharist? What does it mean for us to share the Eucharist together, to participate in the "bread of life" together? Does it mean we love each other, support our community of faith, work together? Do we carry each other's burdens? Celebrate our joys? What are the practical implications of being good stewards of our Eucharistic life together?

One day right in the beginning, we had no rice for dinner and then a lady came and brought rice. She said, "I was coming back from the office and something in me told me to go to Mother Teresa and bring her rice." How beautiful it is when we listen to the Holy Spirit.

On behalf of the community here at Assumption of the Blessed Mother Church and all the pastors who served here over the past forty plus years, I would like to express our most sincere gratitude to Mr. Paul Champagne who ministered in this parish so faithfully for so many years. His remarkable dedication to his music ministry, his compassion and patience, his humble willingness to share his talents with this faith community have surely been noted by our loving Father. Thank you, Paul, for your generous devotion to our community. The photograph on the cover of the bulletin this week is from the twenty-fifth anniversary celebration of the founding of our church. The church was founded in 1954, but the celebration took place in November of 1980. Pictured is Paul and some of the choir members he worked with in 1980.
