Twenty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

St. James teaches that those who are perceived to be poor in the eyes of society are the ones who have been chosen to inherit the Kingdom of God. Indeed, we are saved because of our poverty and redeemed out of our need, not because of our material wealth or achievements that the world finds praiseworthy. St.
James also suggests that we are stewards of others, especially the poor and it is how we respond to the poor and needy that will define our relationship with the Lord. Can you identify the poverty, whether spiritual or material, that is in your own life? How can that "poverty" be redeemed? As stewards of others, how do we respond to the poverty that exists right in our own parish?

The people of the Diocese of Houma-Thibodeaux have received catastrophic damage from Hurricane Ida. Even though other areas have also suffered greatly, at this time we address the immediate needs of our neighbors to the south. The second collection for the weekend of September 25-26 will go to Catholic Charities for the Diocese of Houma Thibodeaux. Thank you for your generosity.
Msgr. Harrington

The reason I was given the Nobel Prize was because of the poor. The prize, however, went beyond appearances. In fact, it awakened consciences in favor of the poor all over the world. It became a sort of reminder that the poor are our brothers and sisters, and that we have the duty to treat them with love.
