The people of the Diocese of Houma-Thibodeaux have received catastrophic damage from Hurricane Ida. Even though other areas have also suffered greatly, at this time we address the immediate needs of our neighbors to the south. The second collection for the weekend of September 25-26 will go to Catholic Charities for the Diocese of Houma Thibodeaux. Thank you for your generosity.

From Msgr. Harrington... We believe that God created the world out of nothing. There was a void, an emptiness, a meaninglessness that God ended. By the force of His will, He created and transformed the void, emptiness and meaninglessness into life, the fullness of His love and purpose. This was how He brought order to the chaos and light to the darkness. This transformation is what brought life into being. The Being brought life to being.

The process of creation has become an ongoing process where the Father constantly transforms life into new life. Life is in constant movement, always in a state of flux. The vibrancy of His very Word uttered from the depths of His heart brought everything and everyone into existence. There is a fundamental connection between His Word and our lives. It is His Word that keeps that persistent progress of life while at the same time renewing the face of His creation. The hand of God relentlessly fashions and molds the clay of existence.

Twenty-Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time
 St. James asks what our love for Jesus Christ can possibly mean if it does not result in action on behalf of, and to benefit, our neighbor. He suggests that faith in Jesus Christ is demonstrated most profoundly in our care for the needy, the suffering, and the underprivileged. Stewardship includes proclaiming the Good News by putting our faith into action on behalf of others. In what ways have we been willing to make sacrifices and renunciations for the sake of Jesus Christ and our neighbor?

Prayer is not asking for things. Prayer is about putting yourself in the hands of God. Make yourself available to Him and learn to listen to His voice in the depths of your heart.
