The people of the Diocese of Houma-Thibodeaux have received catastrophic damage from Hurricane Ida. Even though other areas have also suffered greatly, at this time we address the immediate needs of our neighbors to the south. The second collection for the weekend of September 25-26 will go to Catholic Charities for the Diocese of Houma Thibodeaux. Thank you for your generosity.
Msgr. Harrington

Twenty-Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time
 St. James warns us about accepting the standards of the world and assuming that what is normative in society needs no countercultural challenge. The temptation to hoard riches and make sharp bargains at the expense of the powerless is pervasive because these things are generally done and look respectable enough. St. James points to God's judgment on these attitudes and actions of amassing wealth and comfort at the expense of others. How might we be better stewards of the material blessings we have been given? How might we use our wealth with compassion toward others?

I believe God loves the world through us--through you and me.
Mother Teresa

To care for the world in which we live means to care for ourselves. Yet we need to think of ourselves more and more as a single family dwelling in a common home. Such care does not interest those economic powers that demand quick profits. Often the voices raised in defense of the environment are silenced or ridiculed, using apparently reasonable arguments that are merely a screen for special interests. In this shallow, short-sighted culture that we have created, bereft of a shared vision, "it is foreseeable that once certain resources have been depleted, the scene will be set for new wars, albeit under the guise of noble claims". Fratelli Tutti on Fraternity and Social Friendship.
