Twenty-ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time
 In today's Gospel Jesus teaches his disciples that whoever wishes to be great among them must be a servant, just as he came to be a servant. Good stewards know that their "greatness" is found in God, and is affirmed by a serving heart, a Spirit-filled life, a humble walk and a commitment to acting in ways that glorify God. The "greatness" we feel about ourselves is rooted in a proper view of God in our lives and a proper view of our place in creation. It is from here that we derive our sense of identity and our belief that human life is particularly valuable. Not to be a servant of the Gospel and others would be poor stewardship. In what ways do we serve the Gospel in our daily lives?

BLESSING of the CEMETERY
Sunday, October 31, 2021
after 8:00AM Mass
 Please contact any out of town relatives or friends to advise them of the date & time.

When we realize that we are all sinners needing forgiveness, it will be easier for us to forgive others. We have to be forgiven in order to be able to forgive. If I do not understand this, it will be very hard for me to say, "I forgive you"

MEETINGS
Parish Council-Monday-October 18-6:30PM-Parish Office
C D A-Monday-October 25--6:00-FLC

Recently, Pope Francis canonized a number of persons as saints of the Catholic Church. These extraordinary individuals did more than 'talk the talk'. They lived the Gospel of Jesus Christ as faithfully as they could, no matter the cost. Each one in his or her own way reflected the Father's love for the Son by living a life filled with the Spirit.
