The stories play over and over again in the human narrative. Our hearts feeling trampled because someone else got what we wanted, especially when we thought we were more deserving. Our hearts breaking because we never seem to get the opportunity to shine, always second best, always living a step behind. Everyone seems holier than us or more fortunate than us. We cannot let go of past hurts, we carry them as badges of honor and gladly share our bitterness with each passerby. Oh, we may not tell them our full story, but we communicate with our body language, our actions, our rudeness or any other negative message we can send.

Second Sunday of Advent
 In today's second reading, Saint Paul prays with joy and confidence for his friends in the Christian community at Philippi. He is encouraged that the community has partnered with him to proclaim the Gospel. He sees Christ's active presence and plan of salvation at work in the community. God's overarching plan is unclear to us. But when we see evidence of God working through others, doesn't it give us reason to hope that Christ is alive among us? Does the witness of others help our own prayer lives? Does it inspire us to be partners with others in promoting the Gospel? Food for thought in this second week of Advent.

"The Light Is On For You" From 6:00PM-7:30PM. on Wednesday, December 15 and 22, The Church encourages all Catholics to celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation each Advent. Please take advantage of this opportunity to make a good Advent confession.
