Jesus removes the bitterness when we allow His grace to turn our hearts of stone into hearts of flesh. The Lord of all compassion sees and knows the burden we carry and invites us to lay it down and hand it over to Him. He adds it to His cross, willingly and lovingly so that we might be free. He asks so little of us and gives so much in return.

Don't forget to bring a Christmas tree ornament

Fourth Sunday of Advent
 As we draw close to the great Feast of the Nativity, we hear the bold stewardship proclamation twice in today's second reading from the Letter to the Hebrews: "Behold, I come to do your will, O God!" Who is this Jesus? Who are we that we should follow him? Many want him as a friend, a guide, a king, an advocate. We long to see the face of God. Jesus reveals the nature of God, the servant sent to give us new life in Him. Take time to ponder: Do we have the courage to follow Jesus? To show others the face of God? To say to the Lord: "Behold, I come to do your will?"

Confirmation pictures are ready to be picked up in the office Monday thru Thursday 8AM-4PM
