That terrible longing keeps growing and I feel as if something will break in me one day--and then that darkness comes, that loneliness, that feeling of terrible aloneness. Heaven seems closed from every side—and yet I long for God. I long to love Him with every drop of life in me—and I want to love Him with a deep personal love.

Mother Teresa

Twenty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time

At the conclusion of today's Gospel, we hear Jesus tell a "great crowd" that "...anyone of you who does not renounce all his possessions cannot be my disciple." A few of Jesus' immediate disciples, such as Peter, John and James, did just that: They responded to Jesus' call, renouncing everything to follow him. How do modern disciples of Jesus respond when confronted with this apparently harsh command of Jesus? Surely the renunciation of possessions need not mean literally giving all one's possessions away, does it? Questions we might ponder this week though: Do our possessions keep us from encountering Christ at Mass? Do they distract us from our parish family? Do our possessions interfere with our relationships? Do they make us insensitive to those less fortunate?

Gratitude means we understand that the day does not rely solely on our efforts, our successes or failures, our gifts or faults. The day rests in God and how He moves in our efforts, successes, failures, gifts, faults. We belong to Him: this is the heart of the message of gratitude.

Even though our thankfulness may not immediately improve our mood. It nudges us towards a more life-giving state of being. The focus is no longer just on us, but on the Other. It is this Other that leads us to transcendence. We transcend the aches and pains and move beyond ourselves to be one with the Other. God invites to share the day with Him and allow His presence to lift us beyond the pale.
