Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

In today's gospel we hear Jesus calling Peter, Andrew, James and John to follow him. Following Jesus was a difficult journey for these first disciples. It is difficult for us today. Jesus wants to teach us his way of thinking, acting and encountering the world. But it is not easy for us to embrace his teaching. Good stewards of Jesus' teachings realize they are on a spiritual journey, and must learn from their experiences of being open and resistant to the gospel. They realize the need to be liberated from those actions that keep them from enjoying a closer friendship with Jesus. What is it in our lives that we need to reform? What keeps us from revealing God's glory to others?

BSA

Whether it's cancel culture or a general lack of trust of our leaders or feeling like our motives and character are under attack, the world is challenging us as Catholics to hold fast to the lessons of our Savior: to love your neighbor as yourself and to take on their needs before your own. We have only to look to the example of everyday "saints" like Charlene Richard, Fr. Verbis Lafleur or Nonco Pelafique to see how actions both big and small can change lives and inspire us to greater holiness. It is a lesson worth remembering in a "me-first" modern world.
And so, as caring Catholics, let us prioritize the needs that others express, and welcome God's call to live out his greatest hope for us in faithfulness and purpose. God is a God of humble service. Will you use your faith to reshape our world? Please give to the 2023 BSA. More details to follow next week about the 50th Anniversary Year of this appeal.
