Lenten Bulletins, 2023

The covers for the next five parish bulletins for Lent will feature holy people who were born in Louisiana or served the people of Louisiana. Three were lay people, one a religious woman and two priests. Three are from our diocese: Charlene Richard, Auguste Pelafigue, and Fr. Verbis Lafleur. Two are associated with New Orleans: Mother Henriette DeLille and Fr. Francis Xavier Seelos. Let their holy journeys inspire us throughout this sacred season of Lent.

Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

In another passage from his Sermon on the Mount, Jesus continues to turn his disciples' way of thinking upside-down. One of the lessons for the Christian steward in today's Gospel is that if we have a chance to help someone in need, we should be generous and give more than is expected of us. Jesus went "the extra mile" for us. Can we be more like Jesus and "go the extra mile" for others?

God has created us to love and to be loved, and this is the beginning of prayer—to know that He loves me, that I have been created for greater things.
