Blessed Francis Xavier Seelos

Francis Xavier Seelos was born on January 11, 1819 in Fussen, Bavaria, Germany. He was baptized on the same day in the parish church of St. Mang. Having expressed a desire for the priesthood since childhood, he entered the diocesan seminary in 1842 after completing his studies in philosophy. Soon after meeting the missionaries of the Congregation of the Most Holy Redeemer (Redemptorists), founded for the evangelization of the most abandoned, he decided to enter the Congregation and to minister to German immigrants in the United States. Early on in Pennsylvania, Father Seelos was assistant to St. John Neumann. Seelos said, "He has introduced me to the active life; he has guided me as a spiritual director and confessor."

Father's availability and innate kindness in understanding and responding to the needs of the faithful made him well known as an expert confessor and spiritual director. He practiced a simple lifestyle and a simple manner of expressing himself. He was noted for his preaching and his compassion. In all he did, he maintained a deep devotion to Our Mother Mary.

After years of faithful service in various areas in the United States, Father Seelos was last assigned to New Orleans in 1866. In the month of September, exhausted from visiting and caring for the victims of yellow fever, he contracted the dreaded disease. After several weeks of patiently enduring his illness, he passed on to eternal life on October 4, 1867, at the age of 48 years and nine months.

His Holiness St. Pope John Paul II declared Father Seelos "Blessed" in St. Peter's Square on April 9, 2000. If the Vatican approves a second miracle, Blessed Seelos will be proclaimed a saint. His feast day is October 5th.

Communion from the cup

We have begun to serve Communion from the cup at the 8:00 mass. In the month of April, we hope to begin serving the cup at Saturday 4:00 and Sunday 10:00 masses as well. The following is a reminder on how to receive from the cup: after receiving the host, approach the Eucharist Minister serving the cup, simply bow before the Eucharist, the Minister will say, "The Blood of Christ", you answer, "Amen", the minister will hand you the cup with the precious Blood, you take a small sip, return the cup to the Minister, bow once again and return to your place in church. The person receiving from the cup should never dip the host in the cup, but simply take a small sip. If you are uncomfortable with drinking from the cup because of the possibility of spreading illness, then please do not drink from the cup. The same goes for if you are not feeling well or may have a cold or something more serious, then please do not drink from the cup. Even though the Body and Blood of Jesus is present in the host itself, it is still a wondrous gift to once again "partake of the cup".
