Prayer for Protection during a Hurricane

O God, Master of this passing world, hear the humble voices of your children.
The Sea of Galilee obeyed Your order and returned to its former quietude. You are still the Master of land and sea. We live in the shadow of a danger over which we have no control; the Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant, can awake from its seeming lethargy, overstep its conventional boundaries, invade our land, and spread chaos and disaster.
During this hurricane season we turn to You, O loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with passing of time.
O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our beloved Mother,
we ask you to plead with your Son on our behalf,
so that spared from the calamities common to this area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son to reach the heavenly Jerusalem, where a stormless eternity awaits us. Amen.

Life is too short to wake up in the morning with regrets.
So, love the people who treat you right and forget about the ones who don't.
And believe that everything happens for a reason...
If you get a chance - take it;
if it changes your life - let it.
Nobody said that it would be easy.
They just promised it would be worth it.

Worry?

There are two days in each week about which we should not worry, two days that should be free from fear and apprehension. One of these days is "yesterday" with its mistakes and cares, its faults and blunders, aches and pains. Yesterday just passed forever beyond our control.

All the money in the world cannot bring back yesterday.

We cannot undo a single act we performed and we cannot erase a single word we said. Yesterday is gone.

The other day we shouldn't worry about is tomorrow. With its possible adversities, its burdens, and its large promise, tomorrow is also beyond our immediate control.

Tomorrow's sun will rise either in splendor or behind a mask of clouds. But it will rise, and until it does, we have no stake in tomorrow. This leaves only today, and anyone can fight the battle for just one day. It is only when you add the awful burdens of yesterday and tomorrow that you break down. It's not the experience of today that drives us mad, but the remorse about what happened yesterday and the dread of what tomorrow might bring.
