It is not a sin to be rich. When it provokes avarice, it becomes a sin. Richness is given by God and it is our duty to divide it with those less favored.

Resentment clouds the heart. It is non-redemptive. It does not make us free. If Jesus wants us to experience anything from His Kingdom, it is freedom. How can we be free when it is so important for us to hold on to everything that brings rage into our lives? We expend all our energies carrying the great load of bitterness. There is nothing else left for us to be able to love with joy.

Fratelli Tutti on Fraternity and Social Friendship

Third Sunday of Advent

In today's Gospel we hear the prophet John the Baptist being asked an insightful stewardship question: "What should we do?" Each group wants to know the appropriate response to John's call; each reply points to how they should treat others. John does not simply say, "Be baptized." Rather, he points them to their jobs and personal relationships. John's message is simple: judgment is near, and repentance includes treating others well. We should be willing to share what we have with those in need. To listen to John the Baptist is to be called to account. Do I give only of my excess, or am I the good steward who is willing to make daily sacrifices in order to help others?

Confirmation pictures are ready to be picked up in the office Monday thru Thursday 8AM-4PM
