To smile at someone who is sad; to visit, even for a little while, someone who is lonely; to give someone shelter from the rain with our umbrella; to read something for someone who is blind: these and others can be small things, very small things, but they are appropriate to give our love of God concrete expression.

From Msgr. Harrington:
 I would like to take this opportunity to thank all of you for a wonderful Christmas season! First of all, our parish staff members deserve our appreciation and thanks. Many thanks to those who donated towards the cost of the flowers and tree and church decor. Special thanks to all of you who brought ornaments for the tree in the sanctuary. Thanks goes out to all who helped decorate inside and out. All the liturgical ministers deserve thanks as well: the music ministers, altar servers, lectors, Eucharistic ministers, ushers, sacristans, money counters. Everyone was so dedicated and helped to make our celebrations holy and reverent. I hope the peace that Jesus brings at Christmas continues to fill our hearts and souls throughout 2022.

Second Sunday in Ordinary Time
 In today's second reading, Saint Paul makes a list of gifts dispensed to members of the Christian community by the Holy Spirit. Each gift bestowed has a specific purpose for the person for whom it is intended: wisdom, knowledge, faith, healing, mighty deeds, prophecy, discernment, tongues, and interpretation. Good stewards know these gifts are not meant to be kept hidden by the recipient but to be shared with the community and beyond. As we begin a new year, let us reflect on the gift the Holy Spirit has given to each of us. Do we recognize this gift? How was it intended that we use this gift? Are we being good stewards of this gift?

Do you think Our Savior offered Himself on the cross, to condemn us? No, He saved us to condemn sin. He put sin on His own shoulders so that we might be free. Scrupulosity does not make us free. It makes us hate ourselves and then judge others with a squinty-eyed measure that is mean and cruel and not of God. The only way to fight scrupulosity is to bask in the love of God. The unconditional love of God loves us as we are, not as we should be, not as we could be, not even as others want us to be. He loves us in our imperfections, which then liberates us to ask forgiveness. It doesn't happen the other way around: where we ask God to forgive us, then He loves us. He always loves us unconditionally first. We don't deserve or earn it. It is freely given, because it is of God, and it is love.
