Second Sunday of Advent

Today's second reading is about Christ's coming again, "The day of the Lord," Peter calls it, but that day isn't December 25th. It's that other day, that second-coming day about which Peter is concerned. He waits with great hope and anticipation for God to remake the earth into a place of perfect justice and peace. And he sets some demanding goals for the Christian community as it awaits that final day of accounting and reconciliation: strive to be at peace, without spot or blemish. Christian stewards work for peace. As we await the coming of Christmas, what can we do to promote peace in our homes, workplaces, community and world?

Parish gumbo/ Farewell

The parish gumbo sponsored by the Knights of Columbus at the end of January, is moved to Friday, December 15th at 6:00PM in the Family Life Center. The gumbo will serve as a farewell reception for Msgr. Russell Harrington. Please join us. Sign up now in the church lobby.

I can understand the greatness of God, but I cannot understand His humility. It becomes so clear in Him being in love with each one of us separately and completely. It is as if there is no one but me in the world. He loves me so much. Each one of us can say this with great conviction.
