Legend of the Dogwood Tree

Once upon a time the dogwood tree was as large and strong as an oak. Because of this, its wood was often used for a cross.
It bothered the tree to be used this way, but there was nothing it could do. Time after time, people were nailed to a cross made from the wood of this tree. Including Jesus.
Jesus felt sorry for the dogwood tree because he knew it wasn't the tree's fault.
So, he made sure that never again would the trunk be thick and straight. Instead its trunk would be slender, and it would twist upward like a gracefully sculpted work of art.
And, so that all would know why the dogwood tree is shaped this way, Jesus blessed its petals with the sign of his cross.
Still today, if you look at its blossoms, you will see four petals - two long and two short - in the shape of the cross.
At the edge of each petal you can see the nail prints. And at the center, the crown of thorns.
Each year in the spring time, in the month when Jesus died, the dogwood tree displays its beautiful blossoms to remind us of the love that Jesus has for this tree... and for all of us.

Dear Parish Family,

I would like to extend my heartfelt gratitude to each and every one of you for the incredible kindness you have shown me. The reception you hosted for my upcoming sabbatical was truly overwhelming, but even more touching have been the many kind words, encouragements, and personal expressions of support that I have received from so many of you.

Your generosity of spirit has been a profound reminder of the strength and beauty of our parish community. I carry that with me as a great blessing.

Please know that all of the prayers and petitions you have so thoughtfully written will not be left behind. I will carry them with me throughout my entire journey on the Camino, holding your intentions close in my daily prayers. In that way, you will be walking alongside me every step of the pilgrimage.

Be assured as well of my continued prayers for all of you during this sacred time. Though I may be physically away for a while, we remain deeply united in faith, hope, and love.

With sincere gratitude and affection,

Fr. Duhon
